He has passed orders in the file on date 19.10.2013 mentioning that Sri N. Durgesh is not born to Late P. Laxminarasamma and not eligible for compassionate appointment. The rejection orders issued to Sri N. Durgesh by him as Secretary, City Grandhalaya Samstha, Hyderabad vide Procd., Rc.No.85-A1/2013, dtd.19.10.2013, is in accordance with the Government Orders and instructions issued from time to time, which states that children of deceased only are eligible for providing compassionate appointment. A Detailed report was submitted by him as Secretary, City Grandhalaya Samstha, Hyderabad to the Director of Public Libraries vide Lr Rc.No.85-A1/2013, dtd.31.1.2014. In his remarks, the Director of Public Libraries, Telangana vide reference 6th read above, reported that Smt. P. Laxminarasamma working as Attender at Branch Library, Sanath Nagar under control of City Grandhalaya Samstha, Hyderabad expired while in-service on 15.03.2013. The application of Sri N. Durgesh for compassionate appointment received on 12.04.2013. On verification of Service Register of Late Sri N. Balaraj, attender, and late Smt. P. Laxminarasamma Attender, the Director of Public Libraries observed that Late P. Laxminarasamma is second wife of Sri N. Balaraj and Sri N. Durgesh is son of first wife (first wife expired) of Late Sri N. Balaraj. After demise of Late Sri N. Balaraj, attender, CGS, Smt. P. Laxminarasamma was appointed as attender on compassionate grounds and the family pension was equally distributed between Smt. P. Laxminarasamma and Sri N. Durgesh at the rate of 50% each and Sri N. Durgesh received family pension from 01.12.1989 to 15.05.1995 i.e., till age of 25 years. Smt. P. Laxminarasamma has no children of her own. Sri B.S.P.
